To support auditability, the military payroll system shall maintain a pay history by pay period showing Medical Additional Special Pay payroll computation factors and results. as follows:

1. Duty Status - Member Duty Status captures the state of a DoD Military Service member relevant to his or her availability for duty; (i.e. confinement, separated, deceased, Unauthorized Absence, desertion, excess leave, etc.). The member's duty status is used with the Tour Pay Type to determine if the member is authorized pay and allowances for such duty status and the number of days payable
2. Medical Additional Special Pay Contract Begin Date - The first day for which the military member's contract is effective and establishes the date member is authorized a particular bonus
3. Medical Additional Special Pay Contract End Date - The last day for which the military member's contract is effective and establishes the date member is no longer authorized a particular bonus

4. Medical Additional Special Pay Contract Number of Years - The number of years for which a contract is in effect and is used to determine installment payment dates
5. Medical Additional Special Pay Installment Payment Amount - The predetermined amount authorized or paid to a military member as a one-time payment on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual payment schedule.
6. Medical Additional Special Pay Installment Payment Date - The date a predetermined installment amount is authorized or paid to a military member based on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual payment schedule.
7. Medical Additional Special Pay Paid-to-Date Amount - The total amount of all installment payments paid to the military member for a specific contract period
8. Payroll Calendar Date - Used to identify the pay period the entitlement or deduction was computed to determine the member's gross or net pay for the pay period. For example: BAH With Dependent Rate is processed on April 29, 2011 with effective date April 25, 2011. The transaction was input after the cutoff date for the end-of-month April 2011 pay period; therefore, monies were computed in the mid-month May 2011 pay period. The Payroll Calendar Date is May 15, 2011. Note: Any date can be used as long as the date is unique and identifies a specific pay period. In this example, May 15, 2011 is used to identify the mid-month May 2011 pay period (May 1, 2011 to May 15, 2011) and May 31, 2011 is used to identify the end-of-month May 2011 pay period (May 16, 2011 to May 31, 2011).
9. Tour Pay Type - The tour pay type in conjunction with the member's Duty Status used to determine the number of days the military member is authorized pay and allowances for the tour period and if the member is due pay and/allowance during a tour period
